

The Diagnosis, Treatment and Prevention of Cerebrovascular Disease

Online Audio-Visual Presentations by Leading World Experts

Series Editor: Professor Vladimir Hachinski – University of Western Ontario, Canada

- Immediate online access to 21 specially commissioned talks
- Leading authorities discuss the fundamentals and the latest advances
- User-friendly format – animated slides with accompanying synchronized narration
- Topics covered include: physiology, trends, diagnosis and investigation, management and treatment, rehabilitation, risk and protective factors
- Up-to-date, pragmatic and prioritized approach to the study and treatment of cerebrovascular disease

- This series of talks forms part of The Biomedical and Life Sciences Collection
- Over 1000 presentations by leading scientific experts including Nobel Laureates
- Constantly updated and continually expanding with comprehensive series and talks added every month

Available now at www.hstalks.com/access

HENRY
STEWART
TALKS